Homework: To be completed by the set date.

- Read for a least 10 minutes everyday
- TT Rock Stars - you may be slower at first but do not worry. Just keeping working on them and you will achieve.
- Practise weekly spellings which are on the Year 4 page on a Friday ready for the following weeks teaching and test.

Purple Mash Reading: Each reading group will have a book set for them over this term. The activity on Purple Mash will require them to read the text and then answer questions. This will be added every Monday to be completed during the week, with the aim of completion by Friday

Week One- wb 11th January	Week Two- wb 18th January	Week Three- wb 25th January
R.E Create a poster/fact file/leaflet/PowerPoint/mind map all about Hinduism. • Gods and Goddesses • Beliefs about life after death • Religious practices • Symbols and their meanings	Humanities – Geography (plus Maths) Record the temperature each day, including Saturday and Sunday. When you have collected your results, plot these on a graph. Make sure you label the x and y axis correctly.	Reading Complete the comprehension sheet on the class page. Read through the information, underlining/highlighting the key information. Then, answer the related questions.
Week Four- wb 1st February	Week Five- wb 8th February	Half term (15th February – 19th February)
Science – Where does all the food go? Draw a diagram of a set of teeth. Using BBC Bitesize label the three main types of teeth. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z27kng8/articles/zsp76yc Can you find out two interesting facts about teeth?	ICT – Safer Internet Day (9th) Create a poem about being safe online. Choose the type of poem you would like to write: • Haiku • Acrostic • Free Verse	Pancake Day (16th February) • Research the history behind Pancake Day. Why is it celebrated? Choose a way to display this. • Make pancakes! Savoury or sweet? What's your favourite topping – cheese, maple syrup, Nutella, fruit?

Please send in photographs of your finished homework via the class email Year4@fairway.uwmat.co.uk.