

Change – A History of Crime and Punishment

Key Vocabulary

crime	an action or activity that is against the law, or illegal activity generally punishment	to cause someone who has done something wrong or committed a crime to suffer, by hurting them, forcing them to pay money, sending them to prison judge	a person who is in charge of a trial in a court and decides how a person who is guilty of a crime should be punished, or who makes decisions on legal matter jury	a group of people who have been chosen to listen to all the facts in a trial in a law court and to decide if a person is guilty or not guilty, or if a claim has been proved crucifixion	the act of killing someone by fixing that person to a cross and leaving him or her to die highwayman	in the past, a man on a horse and carrying a gun who stopped people travelling on public roads and stole from them prevention	the act of stopping something from happening or of stopping someone from doing something capital punishment	punishment by death, as ordered by a legal system ethics	the study of what is morally right and wrong, or a set of beliefs about what is morally right and wrong

This is a page of a pamphlet published in York in 1739.

