Conflict
Topic Overview
Our topic begins in 1914- just prior to the outbreak of the First World War. Pupils will travel through time looking at; the build-up the war (linked to our previous work on the Empire), life in the trenches and how the political map of Europe changed. Pupils will learn about the end of war agreements and the long term implications of these- ultimately resulting in the rise of the Nazi's, the Second World War and the creation of Israel. Pupils will study significant individuals from the time, and use primary sources to explore and gain knowledge about the key events. This builds on our prior learning about leaders and political movements that continue to effect out modern world.
